November President's Letter by Steve Kennedy

This month's issue is a bit late because, while all of you were covered in snow, Deanie and I took a quick trip to Phoenix to see some friends. But it was cold there too, it got down to 70° one evening.

A BIG THANKS to Ed Dobbs for hosting the fall drive. Photos elsewhere in the newsletter.

We were fortunate in October to have a couple of events: Colorado Springs Concours, RMJC Monthly Meeting at Grossman's and the Fall Drive to Estes Park. It was also great that there were a number of

From the Editor

The cover shot is by Rory Andrykowski taken at the Colorado Springs Concours. We had to take several shots to get one shot that would work.

Thanks to everyone who contributed photos this month.

We are not going to do a gift exchange this year. As with everything this year, it will be dependent on current COVID Guidelines. Depending on conditions we may have to limit the number of attendees. We will post more information and a registration form on the web site once the current executive order has expired toward the end of November.

October Board Meeting Minutes

Bill Beeson Secretary

Frank and Jean Oakley opened their home to our first Board meeting since March. President Steve Kennedy started the meeting at 7:25pm by introducing a new member, Jeff Shearer, who had recently purchased a new to him 1996 red XJS convertible. This is not Jeff's first Jaguar, having owned another XJS some years back. Steve also thanked Frank and Jean for hosting and preparing a delicious dinner.

Membership Report – Deanie K. reports that the club has 112 members, with several people joining in recent months.

Treasurers Report – Deanie K. reports that, no surprise, the club is ahead of the 2020 budget. The good news is that the club did not lose any money due to the COVID cancelled 2020 AGM in Las Vegas. She shared Kudos to JCNA for their generous support of the club for this event.

The club's donation of $750 that was designated for Bids for Kids has not been submitted due to lack of information from the Bids for Kids organization. Brent agreed to look into a resolution to this situation.

CCCC (Colorado Collector Car Council) – Gary G. reports that all events were cancelled this year. The next meeting of the council is to be on 10/7.

Newsletter- Steve K. reports that the Oct newsletter was printed as 40 hard copies for $60. Mail Hard copies will be 20 pages in length. The online version will include more pictures and pages.

Event Recap:

RMJC Concours - As we all know, the 2020 RMJC Concours was cancelled. But, the 2021 Concours is tentatively planned for Anderson Park in Wheat Ridge. Frank Sullivan has volunteered to remain as the Concours chairman.

Vail Concours (weekend after Labor Day) – Steve and Deanie report that it was a very good show with several truly nice cars. First place in the Super Car class went to Steve Parker with his beautiful F-Type SVR.

The British Car Conclave drive- Gary G. reports that was well attended with around 100 cars and lots of fun.

RMJC Fall drive- Right at 30 cars and approximately 50 people attended. The Open House at Flats Irons Jaguar and the BBQ lunch were terrific. Thanks to the Chris Barrington and the folks at Flat Irons Jaguar for a wonderful outing.

Bids for Kids – Brent M. reports that although this year's event was a virtual event, it was able to raise several thousands of dollars for the cause.

New Business

Mimi's Restaurant Lone Tree and Golden may be in play as sites for the General Meeting. One question remains unanswered, "Can we use a projector at Mimi's?"

Also, there is a possibility of a General Meeting location at DAC. Brent M. is to check on DAC availability and parking.

The club projector is missing. Bill B. is to check on it. Since it is joint ownership with the Triumph club for both club's use at Picollo Restaurant, we may consider selling it to the Triumph club.

The December Board meeting will be hosted by Brent M at the DAC. At this meeting each Board member will pay for their own meal and drink.

Elections: Slate is set

Holiday Party – Kennedys are hosting the party at their home. Registration is required. There will be no gift exchange this year due to COVID.

Programs – Suggested show the TFL YouTube video of a recent classic Mini Cooper rebuild with Ted Ax to discuss his part in the rebuild.

Good of the order- Folks are talking about a possible Forney British Car gathering in March, April, or May.

Steve adjourned the meeting at 8:12pm.
