President's Letter

Greetings from Castle Rock. Oy, what a difference a couple of months makes!! We have had a couple of meetings at our new spot, The New York Deli News, just a couple of blocks from Piccolo's. We have had a Concours. Thanks to Frank Sullivan, Concours Chair, and Steve and Deanie Kennedy for all their hard work getting it put on. We had a wonderful Summer Party at Steve and Deanie's home. Lots of good times recently. T-is about time. Even the weather has been cooperating with us, letting us get our Jaguars out and enjoying them!

We have a few things going on in August. Board meeting on the 3rd, at the NYD, Airport Air & Car Show in Broomfield on the 7th, meeting at New York Deli News on the 17th, AGM in Columbia, SC 26th-29th, and the Rallye Glenwood Springs on the 27th-29th. It looks like we are getting back to having a good slate of activities again.

All, the best thing I can suggest is while the weather stays clear, is to get out there with our cars and LETS HAVE SOME FUN!!

See you out there.

Frank O

Cover Photo

This month's cover photo is another great shot by Rory. His shot was even better than mine. If you would like to submit a shot for the cover, be sure to take the picture long ways top to bottom. It fits the cover of the newsletter better.

July Minutes

We had a great turn out at the NYD for the July meeting. Glad most everyone has found the place. For those who did not make it and would like to in the future, it is just east of Piccolo's on Hampden, 7105 E. Hampden, Ave.

Thanks to Deanie for hosting the Summer Party.

Membership Report: Deanie reports that we currently have 117 members, several who joined recently, and Patricia joined the night of the meeting making it 118 new members.

Treasurer's Report: Deanie-we are on budget. No major expenses coming up.

Web Site Report: Deanie-The events on the calendar on the web site are correct, but for some reason it still says 2020 at the top of the calendar.

CCCC Update: Gary-The CCCC air show will be on August 7th.

Facebook: Mark is doing a great job keeping it up to date. If you have something you would like posted, send it to markkintgen@aol.com.

Newsletter: Steve says he hopes to get the newsletter out this week.

Event Recap: Concours: Frank Sullivan, we had 26 Jaguars on the field. It was a great turnout. Scores have been posted thanks to Jack Humphrey. See the write up elsewhere in the newsletter.

2021 Sweet and Easy Concours

The 2021 RMJC "Sweet and Easy" Concours was sweet and easy for everyone. Again, a huge THANK YOU to Steve and Deanie who did all the real work. Also Thanks to Gary George for keeping the Judges in line and to Judy George for tabulating along with Deanie and Gary. And thanks to Pres. Frank O. for doing the raffle and to the Kennedys for all the items brought to the concours as give-aways. And Thank You to Austin Jeavons who was our runner for the score sheets. And thanks to all who helped set up, clean up, and put things away. I think everyone had a real good time and at least I heard zero complaints but lots of compliments about the concours.

And Thank You to the following Judges: Chief Judge Gary George; Judges Bob Grossman, Rory Andrkowski, Dwight Eisnach, Steve Kennedy, Jon Strader, Ray Horrall, Jack Humphrey (Chief Judge in the Springs) Steve Kreisman, Frank Oakley, Tom Kohen, Henry Platts, Frank Sullivan, and Jay Lander from Florida who has family here and arranged his vacation just to be able to judge at our concours.

I judged the Driven Division and found a few non-functioning light bulbs but I was totally blown away the hard work put in by our club members who have really learned how to prepare their cars for concours. These cars were so clean you really had to look hard to find anything missed in the spit and polish process.
