President's Letter

Wow, is it just me or does time exponentially accelerate every year that goes by. I can't believe June has flown by and half a year is in the books. Thank you Vince Lane for heading up our planning for this years ACC show space and volunteering your time to attend all the planning meetings. If I recall correctly we had 17 Jaguars in attendance with a nice variety of models on display. It was a beautiful day for a show and thank you Deanie Kennedy for the picnic fixing and to everyone that brought a side. It looked so good, strangers were wandering over and wondering where they could get a bite. We did have a handful of Jaguars that were club judged. It was really more of a beauty contest than a concours but it did give our Judges a chance to renew our processes and for the entrants to hone in on what they needed to do for the Rocky Mountain Jaguar Concour later in the month.

Speaking of the RMJC Concours d' Elegance. Everything went off like clock work. The Cherry Creek Country Club is such a great venue to hold this event. Thank you Brent McGibbon for securing this wonderful scenic site to hold our event. The judging was organized by our Chief Judge Steve Kennedy who assigned the teams and the schedule. The awards were many and well received. Well, mostly well received. One gent from Texas had trailered his E-type.

He had some concerns about the 15 minute Judging time. He and Steve seemed to work it out. He had a beautiful E-Type and God bless him for bringing it. He did thank everyone for the lunch.

There still more fun to be had in July. Scope out the calendar of events in this issue of Cat Tales for more info. One you can't miss is our annual summer party on July 11th. Thank you Lisa Bressler for suppling our venue to the get together. A reminder, since we are having the Summer Party there will be no monthly meeting in July.

I want to thank all the members for attending our events. Steve and Deanie put in a lot of time planning our schedule and marshalling our events. They are not only the heart and soul of our club but they are also long time anchors of JCNA. When you look at all that Steve has done, you'd think he wrote the book on Jaguar Judging. Oh wait, he did write the book on Jaguar Judging!!

As always, I wish you pleasant journeys on friendly roads.

Tom Estes, President

PS: If you get an email asking for money from "Tom Estes" and not "Thomas Estes", It is a fake email. Tom, nor anyone else, will never ask you for money through an email.

Ray Satter sent this picture in. The story goes, that he LOANED his MK V to a friend, for a Prom shoot. Can you believe that, lending his Jaguar to someone for a shot of a car load of cute girls? I asked him if he would believe such a story if it was in his court! I don't think so!!!

2006 Cherry Creek Country Club Concours d'Elegance

Photos by Rand Ningali, Dwight Eisnach, (Steve's friend) Loren Helfenbein, & Steve Kennedy

This year's concours was once again held at the wonderful Cherry Creek Country Club, thanks to Brent. There were 25 Jaguars on display, a great turnout. Country Club hosts Mark and Lexie provided a delicious spread and they each also got to pick their Favorite Jaguar. Mark picked Brent's S-Type and Lexie picked Chris's MK 2. Chris always told his daughter, Gretta, that she had to marry someone who liked Jaguars. Lexie loved Chris's MK 2 so he wanted to know if she was available for adoption. There were lots of spectators and it was a wonderful day.

Next year's concours at the Country Club will be August 21st as their June is all booked with weddings.
